LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

Rule 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act—shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, or if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the paid fees shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each paper; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 30th, 1922.

W. H. LANGLEY,
6382-se13 Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(a.) To buy, sell, import, export, and generally deal in coal, coke, wood, and all kinds of fuel and all other goods, wares, and chattels:

(b.) To apply for, obtain, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to register, hold, own, use, operate, sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of and turn to account and profit, any and all trade-marks, improvements, inventions, tools, apparatus, mechanisms, and machinery useful or necessary in the operations of the Company, whether secured under letters patent of the United States or any other country or held in any other manner:

(c.) To take, lease, purchase, hire, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, use, sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, improve, and develop, real estate and real property and any interest or right therein, and to construct, or have constructed, houses, buildings, storehouses, factories, works, plants, and structures of every description, and to buy, sell, own, use, manage, operate, and lease the same or similar structures:

(d.) To take, lease, hire, purchase, manufacture, or otherwise acquire and own, and to sell, hire, lease, pledge, mortgage, and otherwise deal in and with, all kinds of goods, wares, chattels, merchandise, and other personal property, excepting gold and silver bullion, foreign coins and bills of exchange:

(e.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, good-will, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purpose of this Company; and to enter into any partnership or arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(f.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or otherwise valuable consideration:

(g.) To promote, form, organize and register, and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or by any other company:

(h.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(k.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(l.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of or persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(m.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(n.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently operated in connection with the business of the Company:

(o.) To do all such other things as are incidental to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

To manufacture and produce and trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, or privileges as aforesaid:

(e.) To undertake and transact all kinds of agency or business which any ordinary individual may legally undertake:

(f.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire, sell, lease, and deal in lands generally and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of this business, and to pay for the same respectively either in cash or in debentures or in shares of the Company, or partly in one mode and partly in the other or others:

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the good-will, business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same respectively either in cash or in debentures or in shares of the Company, or partly in one mode and partly in the other or others:

(h.) To amalgamate with any other company now or hereafter incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to this Company:

(i.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in other companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or to carry on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(j.) To enter into any arrangements for shares, profits, union of interests, partnership, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person, persons, or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business or transaction capable of being so conducted as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels, and effects of this Company or any part thereof for such consideration as this Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(l.) To loan or invest, by purchase, lease, mortgage, or otherwise, moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(m.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner and form as this Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon all or any of the Company's property or assets, present or future, or both, including uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount promissory notes, execute and issue bills of exchange, cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any of the rights and property of the Company, for cash or otherwise as the Company may see fit:

(p.) To distribute any of the property among the members in specie:

(q.) To carry on any other businesses which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of this Company's property or rights for the time being:

(r.) To insure with any other company or person against losses, damages, risks, and liabilities of all kinds which may affect the Company:

(s.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or any part of the purchase price of any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or any valuable consideration, as may from time to time be determined:

(t.) To do all such things as the Company may think conducive for the attainment of any one of the above objects or any of them:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation and registration of the Company and for remuneration of any person, company, persons, or companies for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place any of the Company's capital or debenture or other securities:

(v.) It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, may be used as independent objects, and shall in nowise be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraphs or the name of the Company.

(c.) To purchase, acquire by record, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, deal with, use, or dispose of water rights, water records, water-powers, water privileges, and such other rights, privileges, and franchises as the Company may think fit, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, and by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any channel or channels:

(d.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act" and amendments thereof, and to enjoy all rights and privileges and assume the corresponding obligations under the said Act, and to acquire any necessary licences therefor; to pay all such fees and charges, to execute all such documents, and to do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act" and amendments thereof:

(e.) To exercise the specific powers conferred by section 138 of the "Water Act" and amendments thereof:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, location, concession, or otherwise city lots, farm lands, mining or fruit lands, mineral claims, town-sites, grazing lands, timber lands, oil lands and (or) leases, and any description of real estate and real property or any interest and rights therein, legal or equitable or otherwise howsoever; to take, build upon, hold, own, maintain, work, develop, sell, lease, exchange, improve, and otherwise deal in and dispose of such lots, lands, leases, sites, real estate, and real property or any interest therein; to deal with any portion of the lands and property so acquired, subdividing the same out into building lots, streets, and building-sites for residential purposes or otherwise, and with power to construct streets thereon, necessary sewerage and drainage systems; to build upon same for residential purposes or otherwise; to supply buildings so erected with electric light, heat, gas, water, or other requisites therefor; to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to own, develop, and operate, steam, electric, and hydraulic plants for the purpose of generating heat, light, and power for the uses of the Company in connection with any of its operations, and to dispose of any surplus thereof not required for such operations, and in connection therewith to enter into all and any contracts and agreements for the supply of heat, light, and power that the Company may deem proper; provided, however, that all sales, transmission, or distribution of electric or other power beyond the lands of the Company shall be subject to local and municipal regulations in that behalf:

(g.) To import, export, trade, purchase, sell, manufacture, and deal in goods, wares, produce, raw material, commodities, manufactured articles, and merchandise of every description; to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to build, charter, or hire, steam and other ships or vessels and any shares or interests therein, with all equipment and furniture; to maintain, repair, improve, alter, sell, exchange, or let out to hire or charter or otherwise deal with and dispose of the said ships, shares, or interests:

(h.) To carry on the business of miners, metallurgists, oil operators, and dealers in oil lands and leases, pipe-line contractors, owners, and operators, builders and contractors, engineers (subject to the "Engineering Act"), farmers, graziers, ship-owners, ship-brokers, ship-builders, insurance-brokers, managers of shipping property, freight contractors, carriers on land and sea, barge-owners, forwarding agents, warehousemen, wharfingers, merchants, importers, exporters, and dealers in goods, wares, merchandise, and raw material of every description and kind:

(i.) To purchase, acquire, and take over the business and (or) undertaking, good-will, property, and (or) liabilities of any person or company, whether incorporated or not, carrying on any business of a nature or character similar to any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, and to pay for the same either in cash or with fully paid-up and non-assessable shares of this Company, or part in cash and part in fully paid-up shares as aforesaid:

(j.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(k.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to give any guarantee for the payment of money or the performance of any obligation or undertaking, except contracts of insurance, but including the guaranteeing of any investment made by the Company:

(l.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(m.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

Provided, however, that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."
